

2017 Italian Australian Foundation International Fellowship

Fellowship Application Form

The Italian Australian Foundation and the International Specialised Skills Institute (ISS Institute) are offering one (1) international applied research Fellowship in the amount of $10,000.

The 2017 Italian Australian Foundation Fellowship provides an opportunity for an Australian resident of Italian descent to acquire higher-level skills and drive leading practice and innovation in Australia. It is intended that the Fellowship will demonstrate potential benefits for, and application in, Australia.

The proposed Fellowship can focus on any area worthy of international investigation and exploration, and can be conducted in any part of the world.

Applications close at 4:00pm on Friday 27 October, 2017.

About this Fellowship

ISS Institute is seeking a candidate for this Fellowship who is interested in exploring new and leading practice, innovation and leadership opportunities in Skill Enhancement areas. Italian descent is defined, for the purpose of this Fellowship, as being able to trace Italian ancestry within three generations on at least one side of the family. Three generations means up to the level of Grandparent/s.

Italian Australian Foundation

The Italian Australian Foundation (previously the Italian Services Institute Inc.) is an association dedicated to providing welfare and education services for disadvantaged persons of Italian descent resident in Australia who would not otherwise have access to those services.

ISS Institute

The ISS Institute is a not-for-profit, independent, national organisation that for over 25 years has worked with Australian governments, industry and education institutions to enable individuals to gain enhanced skills and experience in traditional trades, professions, leading edge technologies and, education and training.
